Giggling Girls.

It is much to be regretted that whenever a teacher undertakes to go outside the curriculum and his duties pertaining to it and give wholesome advice to pupils, there is an instant revolt, as if it were an infringement of personal liberty. And it is particularly boys and girls in the high schools who are most touchy in the matter of instruction concerning manners and morals. Curiously enough, parents are very anxious to have teachers discharge the responsibilities which of right belong to the home circle. They find it difficult to manage the young folks and think that this is either because teachers are not doing their teaching right or are neglecting the moral training.

When, the other day, the principal told the girls of the high school that they ought to stop giggling in the street cars, there arose a cry of outraged innocence, as if in the first place the girls had been accused of a heinous offense, and, next, as if it was any business of the teacher anyway! Well, strictly speaking, we suppose it was none of his business so far as the rules and regulations are concerned. But he is a poor teacher who does not in every way strive to develop character in the pupils under his charge. In these days the young folks have more liberties than their parents ever had—some of them many more than is proper. It seems as if all young people of from 15 to 18 look upon themselves as the most important creatures in the country and are so restive of restraint that they object to the slightest discipline.

WILL OF BANKER WHO FOLLOWED MEDIUMS VOID

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 9.—A verdict was rendered by a jury here today, setting aside the will of Thomas Crumbaugh, who left a half million dollars to the Spiritualist church. The verdict followed a sensational trial, at which letters were produced to show that Crumbaugh had been unduly influenced by alleged mediums, who claimed to be in communication with the spirit of the banker's infant son.

"THE STORE BEAUTIFUL" WILL GIVE AWAY

One of These Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, May 23rd, at 4:30 P. M.

We want every lady over 18 years of age to visit our store during the week of May 18, to see the display of Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, one of which will be given away absolutely free, without any obligation to buy a penny's worth of goods. By calling up or calling at the store, full particulars will be given.

FLOUR BIN.

The flour is put in at the top, passes through the entire bin, and is taken out thoroughly sifted at the bottom. Thus no mouldy flour can accumulate. The bin is self-cleaning, made of metal and white wood.

RECIPE CABINET

This outfit consists of 100 recipe cards, ten guide cards labeled Bread, Cake and Desserts, Eggs, Fish, Meats, Miscellaneous, Salads, Sauces, Soups, Vegetables. The cards are in a neat rack attached to the same door as the spice tin.

ALUMINUM WORK TABLE

This extension top can be drawn out or extended beyond the front of the cabinet over 11 inches, adding more than one-third the working space.

SPICE CABINET

The cabinet for spices contains six airtight cans, highly finished and labeled: Ginger, Cloves, Cream of Tartar, Allspice, Baking Powder and Cinnamon. A neat rack holds them in place on the left hand door.

SPICE CABINET

The Cabinet to be given away is on exhibit in our window. Call and see it.

Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets have Special Features that make them different, better and more convenient than any other kitchen cabinet.

Husbands, when you get your wife a kitchen cabinet get her a REAL cabinet—a labor-saving kitchen machine, that is not merely a collection of shelves, hooks and dark bins, but a modern, perfected unit that REALLY SAVES LABOR AND MONEY.

These special features tell the story. Show this advertisement to her. SHE will know their importance.

Other cabinets do not have these features and the extra Hoosier arrangement that saves hundreds of steps each day. Besides, remember this important fact:

The "Hoosier" is low in price

There are many labor-saving features that only the HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET possesses, such as Metal Meal Drawers, Pan Racks, Sliding Shelves, etc.

Anyone who has ever used an ordinary kitchen cabinet knows how difficult it is to try to get articles out of the back part of the lower cupboard. The Hoosier sliding shelves slide in and out the same as drawers and the contents of the cupboard can be brought to the front within easy reach by drawing out the shelf.

SUGAR BIN

SUGAR BIN

The sugar bin is the most cleverly devised bin in the Hoosier. The bulk of the sugar is held in the upper part of the bin, as the opening is only large enough to allow a small quantity to run in the lower part. When a scoop full is taken out the same quantity drops down.

WANT LIST

Attached to the front of the flour bin is a handy Want List, covering everything that can possibly be needed in the kitchen, alphabetically arranged with tasks set opposite names on the list—a simple and effective system for keeping stock in the kitchen.

BREAD AND CAKE BOX

The place for keeping bread fresh and moist is one of the best features of the Hoosier. The Hoosier Bread Box takes the place of the lower drawer. It is 8x11x24 inches, made of metal, and has close fitted lids. One end is partitioned off for cake.
